

MADE HERE, TRUSTED EVERYWHERE

Trusted everywhere ice cream makes memories sweet.

Kent Elastomer Products serves the food and beverage industry with tubing products produced to exacting specifications in a variety of FDA, NSF and USP Class VI compounds - including aseptic fitment hoses.

Being proud to be American means a lot to us every day – not just as we near Independence Day.

Our leaders, team members, and partners are proud to stand behind KEP's quality products that are Made Here, Trusted Everywhere – like our products that keep the food & beverage industry moving! From aseptic fitment hoses to tubing for dispensing ice cream and more, learn more about our Made in the U.S.A. food & beverage products.

TEAM MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Meet Mizusa Hagen

Mizusa Hagen joined the KEP team 2 years ago – and we hope to keep her for many more! Mizusa works as an assembler in our Mogadore facility where her primary focus is assembling products with tight tolerances and critical surface quality requirements. Dedicated to quality and consistency, Mizusa helps us deliver top-notch assembly services to our customers.
