

2022 HERE WE COME!

Season's Greetings From

However you're planning to spend the holidays, we hope you all enjoy a joyous season as we bid farewell to 2021! With many of our celebrations pared down this year, we are looking forward to a full lunch and party at a later time for our teams.

What are you looking forward to? If your future plans require great partnership and high quality manufacturing services – we've got you covered in 2022! Let's chat.

MERRY & BRIGHT NEWS

New Hires & Promotions!

This season we're excited to spread joy in many ways – including welcoming a new hire and celebrating two exciting promotions in our KEP facilities!

Bobby Dalton recently joined our Kent facility's team as National Sales Manager. In this role, Bobby will serve as a point of contact for customers, coordinate with our internal departments, help us meet goals and more. He is excited to play a pivotal role in helping KEP grow – and we're so glad to have him! Learn more about Bobby >

Another exciting piece of news for KEP is Chris Rohrer's promotion to Manager of Winesburg Operations. Chris has served in previous roles for 20+ years in Winesburg, including shipping coordinator and group leader. She is looking forward to working in the production side of things again and leading a great group of team members. Learn more about Chris >

And last but certainly not least, please join us in congratulating Cheri Thompson on her promotion to Director of Winesburg Operations! Cheri has held several previous roles in our facility, including Manager of Winesburg Operations, 1st shift supervisor, Administrative Assistant, general office and general labor positions. SERVICE YOU CAN SEE

Committed TO YOUR Success

Nancy's long career at KEP illustrates her commitment to our success... and to yours.

Nancy Miller
Shipping & Receiving
Started 1985

That's Service You Can See

Since 1985, Nancy Miller has built a wealth of experience at KEP. So Nancy knows a thing or two about delivering quality made in America products to our customers – on time, every time.

In the same way Nancy is committed to successful Shipping & Receiving services for our business, she also works hard to build partnerships with our customers that help them reach their long-term goals. Nancy's commitment has no end!

Know what else has no end? KEP's dedication to high-quality, consistent solutions for our customers in the medical and surgical, food and beverage, and distribution industries, & beyond.

THAT'S A WRAP!

The Final Countdown!

We can't wrap up 2021 without giving a shout out to the final group of KEP team members who are celebrating anniversaries this year! Out of December's group, we have two team members who have been with us for over two decades – Carlos Johnson, a supervisor at our Kent facility, and Chris Rohrer, a manager at our Winesburg facility!

HARD WORK = QUALITY PRODUCTS

Meet Amanda Trolio

Amanda Trolio is an employee at our Winesburg facility. Amanda started in latex tubing in August 2021 and is currently working in extrusion packaging tourniquet bands. We can count on Amanda to work hard to produce products that KEP is proud to stand behind. She is willing to help out wherever needed and we are glad she joined the team!
